Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The state of South Dakota has been fortunate to receive the labors of Larry E. Kirschenman, who has devoted over 37 years of exemplary performance with the Department of Transportation; and,

Whereas, During Larry's career with the Department, he held the positions of Highway Maintenance Worker and Highway Maintenance Supervisor. He has filled potholes, mowed ditches, repaired and installed signs, closed and opened highways, plowed roads, and has given up many holidays with his family to keep our highways safe; and,

Whereas, Larry has served the people of this great state well, devoting the majority of his working life to their mobility and safety; while still finding time for the people of Menno, his church, farming, traveling to the Holy Land, or spending time with family and friends; and,

Whereas, Larry's dedication to his family, friends, community, and country are exemplary as revealed by his service in the National Guard, the countless hours of helping his children with projects or maintenance of their homes, helping with his grandchildren, and his readiness to lend a hand at the Salem Reformed Church in Menno; and,

Whereas, Larry's professionalism has set high standards for all employees of the Department with his honesty, loyalty, and integrity. On June 8, 2014, Larry is retiring; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 8, 2014, as
